

Class Descriptions:

Class A This class will focus on teaching and improving all the basic steps and a number of popular formations. The class is suitable for dancers with one to two years of experience and those dancers who prefer the more traditional styles of dances.

Class B This class requires that participants are capable of dancing the basic formations without the need of a walk-through. The instruction in the class will focus on improving the steps to a more advanced level and introducing some of the new and/or unusual formations included in dances.

If you are in doubt about the level of class you should sign up for, please consult your teacher. The correct choice of class will maximize both your enjoyment and that of others. The Workshop Committee may reassign dancers to balance classes.

TEACHERS

Deb Lees –Perth, Scotland

Deb first encountered Scottish Country Dancing at Newcastle University as an 18-year-old student and has been dancing ever since! She started SCD teaching at a university class, obtained her full certificate in 1987, and for many years taught the advanced/demonstration class and step class in Newcastle.

She now lives near Perth in Scotland and enjoys teaching SCD, step classes and workshops across the UK and continental Europe, including St Andrews Summer School.

Over the years she has had a lot of fun training dancers for performance or competition, including the Newcastle Festival and other traditional dance festivals around the world.

Deb also loves playing for dancing whenever she gets the opportunity, which has taught her a huge amount about dancing and teaching from a different perspective.

She considers teaching workshops a privilege and is looking forward to coming to Toronto to share her expertise.

Tristan Gerrie – Toronto, Ontario

Tristan has been active in the Scottish country dance community in Toronto for many years. He obtained Part 1 of his teaching certificate at TAC and completed his training in St Andrews in 2024. Tristan currently co-teaches a class for young adults in Toronto and assists with the Tayside group, which is taught by his father, Blair Gerrie.

Tristan was born to a family of Scottish country dancers, began dancing as a child at Newtonbrook with Betty Thompson and subsequently joined Georgina Finlay's youth class.

He is passionate about encouraging young dancers to be involved and is co-chair of the Toronto Association's youth committee, a member of the RSCDS Youth Branch and the TAC youth committee.
